1	SB1571 SD1	Tourism; HTA; Powers; Administration	RELATING TO TOURISM. Exempts all positions within the Hawai'i Tourism Authority from the state civil service law. Provides that the powers described in section 201B-3, HRS, shall be granted to the Hawai'i Tourism Authority except as otherwise provided by law. Amends the definition of "convention center facility" for purposes of chapter 201B, HRS. Amends the eligibility requirements to serve on the Hawai'i Tourism Authority board of directors. Effective 7/1/2050. (SD1)	DECOITE, WAKAI, Kim	1	Governance	C	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Adding language exempting all positions within the HTA from state civil service law allows for the hiring of the best-qualified professionals.</li> <li>- We should maintain a strong "Hawaiian sense of place" at the HCC in alignment with our Strategic Plan's Hawaiian Culture pillar goal.</li> <li>- HTA's role as a "policy-making and advisory board" needs clarification. We are already experiencing confusion and difficulties with the recent changes that have blurred some lines between the Authority and the DBEDT.</li> <li>- Removing the two-year waiting period for individuals who served on the Hawai'i Visitors and Convention Bureau board of directors to join HTA's board diminishes the safeguards against the appearance of impropriety.</li> <li>- The amendment changing the phrasing from "limited by this chapter" to "provided by law" undermines the authority of Chapter 201B, subjecting HTA to HRS 26-35, the administration of boards and commissions, and impacting its operational autonomy.</li> <li>- Regarding HRS 226-8, the amendment to remove 'form' and replace it with 'allow the formation of' weakens the objective of the current policy to establish community partnerships to ensure Native Hawaiian cultural integrity.</li> </ul>	EDT/LBT, WAM
2	SB1536 SD1	HTA; President and Chief Executive Officer; ERS Exemption; Repeal	RELATING TO THE HAWAII TOURISM AUTHORITY. Repeals exemptions of the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Hawai'i Tourism Authority from the State's Employees' Retirement System.
