What does "Mālama Ku‘u Home Moloka‘i" and the idea of mutually beneficial tourism look like to you?

“What is the point? Money or share culture?”

“Keep country. Country”

“Covid has been an eye opener for everyone. we cannot do tourism wale nō”

Responses

- What is the point? Money or share culture? Keep country. Country
- Covid has been an eye opener for everyone. we cannot do tourism wale nō
- Visit bit not move here
- Not a tourism vacation destination to turn into a permanent home. Visit and go home.
- Locals could be displaced to make room for ecotourism
- Look at other islands Threats to the culture if not monitored closely.
- Not be totally dependent on tourism Cannot control tourist
- Moloka'i is NOT a tourist destination only ONE hotel. Hint
- Jobs for our upcoming generation so they can stay on island.
- Local inter-island tourism. Share culture and not just resorts.
- Yes agreed! Visit spend go home. Control and limit tourism.
- A new, positive way of welcoming visitors without the old, negative mindset.
- Show respect, get respect
- Molokai is where I live it is not a tourist destination!
- Provide jobs for our local families. I like the "invite only"
- Residents & visitors able to get to know each other
- Respect respect respect
- Protect Molokai from unfettered tourism, by invite only!
- Come, visit, spend money - and GO HOME
- Come visit, spend, and go home

What other important Anchor Actions should be considered or added?

“Tourism should not be our major income for the island as it is on other islands. Especially,

Responses

- Tourism should not be our major income for the island as it is on other islands. Especially, Molokai Ranch who is a privatized business they do not help our community. We need a Molokai resident based structure that is ran by Molokai
- Support more native Hawaiian businesses that focuses on tourism
- Work to enhance airline service
- Provide more support for locally Owned Tourism companies.
- The go home part of visit spend go home.
- Develop clear metrics. What will success look like? Recognize that more is not always better
- Develop other economically diverse opportunities - besides tourism - that will generate jobs and income for our island
- Center residents needs and cap the amount of tourism allowed.
